

FPA Community Building Terms of Service

Financial Planning Association® (FPA™) Community Building enables FPA members to meet, interact, and share ideas with each other. FPA Communities of Interest and Discussion Groups thrive best when people work within the same framework. Financial Planning Association sets out the terms and conditions of your use of our services in the FPA Terms of Service and in other rules that we may place on our site. By using FPA Community Building you accept and agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions. Nothing in the Terms of Service should be construed to confer any rights to third party beneficiaries. Please remember the following when utilizing FPA Community Building:

1. When you register for FPA Community Building you must provide true, accurate and complete registration information.
2. You may not harass, defame, abuse, stalk, threaten, advocate violence against other members or individuals or groups, or otherwise violate the legal rights (such as rights of privacy and publicity) of others. Do not post anything in your message that you would not want the world to see or that you would not want anyone to know came from you.
3. You may not post content that is harmful to minors.
4. No profanity or explicit language is allowed.
5. You may not post content that is obscene, otherwise objectionable, or in violation of federal or state law.
6. You may not use any robot, spider, site search/retrieval application, or other device to retrieve or index any portion of FPA Community Building or collect information about users for any unauthorized purpose.
7. You may not promote or provide instructional information about illegal activities or promote physical harm or injury against any group or individual.
8. Transmission of any viruses, worms, defects, Trojan horses, or any items of a destructive nature is strictly prohibited.
9. Messages should not be posted if they encourage or facilitate members to arrive at any agreement that either expressly or impliedly leads to price fixing, a boycott of another's business, or other conduct intended to illegally restrict free trade. Messages that encourage or facilitate an agreement about the following subjects are inappropriate: prices, discounts, or terms or conditions of sale; salaries; profits, profit margins, or cost data; market shares, sales territories, or markets; allocation of customers or territories; or selection, rejection, or termination of customers or suppliers.
10. Please stay on topic. Although all groups are different, most groups appreciate it when you stay on topic. If you constantly stray from the topic you are negatively impacting the environment and may be removed from the group altogether.
11. You may not use FPA Community Building for commercial or advertising purposes. You may not post messages that promote pyramid schemes, chain letters or disruptive commercial messages or advertisements, or anything else deemed prohibited.
12. The content within FPA Community Building is protected by copyright and other laws. FPA only authorizes you to view and download a single copy of the content solely for your personal, non-commercial use. You may not sell or modify the content or reproduce, display, publicly perform, distribute, or otherwise use the content in any way for any public or commercial purpose without the written permission of FPA. To obtain FPA's permission to use any of the content on Community Building please e-mail christine.richardson@fpanet.org. or other person designated by FPA.

13. You may not post content which infringes the intellectual property, privacy or other rights of third parties.
14. You may not use FPA Community Building for the purpose of storing and/or archiving files.
15. You cannot re-post or re-transmit content that belongs to another user without that user's permission. Posting content generated in FPA Community Building to any other site is prohibited. Quoting portions of postings or entire postings in publications, news stories, or any venue in the public domain is prohibited.
16. All data, text, information, links and other content, whether posted in public or private groups, is the sole responsibility of the person from which such content originated. FPA is not responsible for content that you (the user) publish, post, upload, distribute, disseminate or otherwise transmit via FPA Community Building. Under no circumstances will FPA be liable in any way for any content, including, but not limited to, for any errors or omissions in any content, or for any loss or damage of any kind incurred as a result of the use of any content posted on FPA Community Building. You agree that you will evaluate, and bear all risks associated with, the use of any content, including any reliance on the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of such content. You understand that the technical processing and transmission of FPA Community Building may involve (a) transmissions over various networks; and (b) changes to conform and adapt to technical requirements of connecting networks or devices.
17. FPA does not pre-screen, control, edit or endorse content made available through FPA Community Building and has no obligation to monitor the content posted. If FPA discovers content that does not appear to conform to the Terms of Service, FPA may investigate and determine in its sole discretion whether to remove the content. FPA will have no liability or responsibility for performance or non-performance of such activities.
18. The Terms of Service of this service are subject to update by FPA at any time with or without notice. User can review the most current version of it these Terms of Service online at <http://community.fpanet.org/cs/> any time.
19. FPA is not responsible for the opinions and information posted on this site by others. FPA disclaims all warranties with regard to information posted on this site, whether posted by FPA or any third party; this disclaimer includes all implied warranties of merchantability and fitness. In no event shall FPA be liable for any special, indirect, or consequential damages or any damages whatsoever resulting from loss of use, data, or profits, arising out of or in connection with the use or performance of any information posted on this site.
20. Do not post any information or other material protected by copyright without the permission of the copyright owner. By posting material, the posting party warrants and represents that he or she owns the copyright with respect to such material or has received permission from the copyright owner. In addition, the posting party grants FPA and users of this list the nonexclusive right and license to display, copy, publish, distribute, transmit, print, and use such information or other material.

If you are unsure whether your content is consistent with these policies, please err on the side of caution and do not post your content in FPA Community Building.

FPA's Right To Terminate

FPA Community Building reserves the right to terminate or remove any content, Group or FPA Community Building access without notice if (a) FPA believes that you have acted inconsistently with the spirit or the letter of the FPA Terms of Service or (b) FPA believes you have violated or tried to violate the rights of others. Please help us keep FPA Community Building an enjoyable and positive experience. If you see a content that violates our rules, please let us know by e-mailing christine.richardson@fpanet.org.

Rules of Etiquette

Include a signature tag on all messages. Include your name, affiliation, location, and e-mail address.

State concisely and clearly the topic of your comments in the subject line. This allows members to respond more appropriately to your posting and makes it easier for members to search the archives by subject.

Include only the relevant portions of the original message in your reply. Delete any header information, and put your response before the original posting.

Only send a message to the entire list when it contains information that everyone can benefit from.

Send messages such as "thanks for the information" or "me, too" to individuals--not to the entire list. Do this by using your e-mail application's forwarding option and typing in or cutting and pasting in the e-mail address of the individual to whom you want to respond.

Do not send administrative messages, such as remove me from the list, through the Listserv. Instead, use the Web interface to change your settings or to remove yourself from a list. If you are changing e-mail addresses, you do not need to remove yourself from the list and rejoin under your new e-mail address. Simply change your settings.

Warn other list subscribers of lengthy messages either in the subject line or at the beginning of the message body with a line that says "Long Message."
