

FINANCIAL PLANNING ASSOCIATION®

Residency Program Scholarship Application

The primary aim of the Financial Planning Association (FPA®) is to be the community that fosters the value of financial planning and advances the financial planning profession. This FPA Residency Scholarship funded by a grant from the Foundation for Financial Planning demonstrates FPA's commitment to lifelong learning and growing the next generation of financial planners. This scholarship also demonstrates the organizational commitment to develop and deliver pro bono financial planning services to the public in need. The scholarship is targeted toward individuals who provide pro bono financial planning services to people in need. To be awarded an FPA Residency Scholarship each applicant will have demonstrated their efforts to deliver pro bono services. While FPA is especially looking at work pro bono work in financial sectors, persons with other contributions are also encouraged to apply. FPA will select the most deserving candidate(s) based on applicant responses.
