

Creating an Investment Policy Statement: Guidelines and Templates
By Norman M. Boone, MBA, CFP® and Linda S. Lubitz, CFP®

Introduction	1
Chapter 1: What is an Investment Policy Statement?	3
Overview	3
The Role of an IPS	5
The Benefits of Using an Investment Policy Statement	7
Who Need an Investment Policy Statement?	7
Do You Need an Investment Policy Statement? – A Quiz	9
Why Bother?.....	10
The Successful Advisory Relationship	10
How Does a Successful Advisory Relationship Happen?	11
Chapter 2: The History of Prudent Investing	15
Are You a Fiduciary?	15
The Evolution of the Prudent Investment Process	16
Harvard College v. Amory (1830)	16
Depression Leads to New Approaches	17
Investment Theory and Understanding Evolved in the Post- WWII Era	18
Modern Portfolio Theory	18
ERISA Moved Us into the ‘Modern Era’	19
The Uniform Prudent Investor Act	20
Uniform Principal and Income Act	22
In Summary: Ten Prudent Investment Guidelines	22
Fiduciary Investment Checklist	24
The Most Common Investment Mistake	26
Chapter 3: The Investment Process	29
Know Your Client	29
Early Interviews	30
Managing Client Expectations	31
The Questionnaire	33
The Nine-Step Investment Process	34
1. Know Why Your Client Is Investing Identify Goals	34
2. Identify a Target or Needed Rate of Return	36
3. Understand the Time Horizon	39
4. Understand Risk and Your Client’s Tolerance for It	41
5. Identify Acceptable Investment Categories and Vehicles	44
6. Establish an Acceptable Allocation of Asset Categories	46
7. Write the Investment Policy Statement	48
8. Pick the Specific Investments that Fit the Allocation Model	48
9. Monitor and Adjust as Appropriate	48

Returning to the Beginning	51
Chapter 4: Difficult Policy Issues	53
The Difficult Issues in Each Step	54
Step 1: Identify Goals	54
Step 2: Identify the Target Rate of Return	56
Step 3: Know the Time Horizon	57
Step 4: Understand Your Client's Risk Tolerance	58
Step 5: Identify Asset Classes and Investment Vehicles	59
Step 6: Design the Asset Allocation	61
Step 7: Write the Investment Policy Statement	64
Step 8: Select the Investments	64
Step 9: Monitoring, Managing and Reporting	65
Chapter 5: Asset Allocation	69
Reflecting the Client's Needs and Risk Tolerance	70
Designing the Portfolio Using an Optimizer	71
Optimizer Difficulties	74
Designating Asset Classes	76
Reflecting the Asset Allocation in the IPS	78
Addressing Expected Returns	79
A Second Approach	83
A Simpler Approach	84
Identifying Your Assumptions	86
Resources	87
Chapter 6: Building an Investment Policy Statement	93
The Components of an IPS	93
1. Account Information and Summary of Investor Circumstances	95
2. Identification, Discussion, and Review of Investment Objectives, Time Horizon, and Attitude About and Tolerance for Risk	97
3. Permitted Assets, Constraints and Restrictions	101
4. The Allocation of Portfolio Assets	107
5. Selecting and Monitoring Advisors/Management and Control Procedures	111
6. Signatures	118
Chapter 7: Guidelines for Working with Qualified Plans	121
ERISA Compliance Quick Checklist	126
Chapter 8: Conclusion	129
Chapter 9: Suggested Readings	133
Procedural Prudence and Fiduciary Responsibility	133

Global Investing	134
Investment (Asset) Valuation	134
Asset Allocation	134
Mean-Variance Optimization	135
Portfolio Management	135
Security Analysis	136
Statistics	136
Attribution	136
Other Tools to Help You	136
Appendix A: Sample Risk Tolerance Questionnaire	139
Appendix B: Sample IPS Documents	157
A. Individual/Married Investor	159
B. Family Trust	183
C. Charitable Remainder Trust	201
D. Endowment or a Foundation	223
E. Pension Plan	247
F. Profit-Sharing Plan	269
G. 401(k) Plan	291
H. Variable Life Insurance Policy Held in a Trust	309
Appendix C: Sample Executive Summary for File	333