

Financial Planning—The Next Step: A Practical Approach to Merging Your Clients' Money with Their Lives

By Roy T. Diliberto, CFP®, CLU

Introductions and Acknowledgements

Chapter 1: Getting Started: Who Is Your Client?	7
Chapter 2: Why Good Advisers Often Give Bad Advice: The Danger of Assumptions	19
Chapter 3: The Initial Interview—Helping Clients Find a Home	33
Chapter 4: Understanding Your Clients' Histories, Values, and Transitions	53
Chapter 5: Understanding Your Clients' Goals	71
Chapter 6: Numbers Matter	89
Chapter 7: Moving Beyond the Investment Mentality: Is the Emperor Naked?	97
Chapter 8: Estate Planning: How Do You Want to Be Remembered?	105
Chapter 9: Philanthropy—The Power of Giving	113
Chapter 10: Marketing: Meet Ralph Busco	123
Chapter 11: Ongoing Service: The Key to Client Retention	135
Chapter 12: Organizing Your Firm: The Team Approach	153
Chapter 13: Getting Your Staff on Board: Motivating and Compensating	165
Chapter 14: The Value of Advice: A Fee Structure for Financial Life Planners	177
Chapter 15: Living the Dream	191
Index:	197